St. Augustine's Notices

Shane Arsenault's funeral: The funeral for Shane will be held on Wednesday, July 22nd at 10:30 at St. Augustine's. With the approval by the chief public health office to have 100 people in the church we will be able to gather to give him a beautiful funeral. However, both families are big with many extended members. Knowing how supportive the people in the St. John Paul II Unit have been Phyllis and Sarah would love to be able to have the church doors open wide to invite everyone to attend. Given the restrictions under which we need to operate these days that can not happen. An overflow of 50 people can go to the Lion's Club to view the funeral which is being live streamed to facebook through Central Queens Funeral Home. Of course, people can also watch it on their home computer. Take care of each other and remember Shane's motto- "Get 'er done".

The Word This Week

Let them both grow till the harvest

There is no room in a good field for weeds and rubbish: so in the Kingdom of Heaven, there is no room for all things that provoke offences, and all who do evil. They must be got rid of, for the sake of the good wheat, for the sake of the good subjects of the kingdom. But this weeding out will not take place until harvest time - in case one piece of good wheat is destroyed with the weeds. This shows the mercy of God: everyone has chance after chance to prove that they are wheat, not darnel; there are no quick judgements in the kingdom of heaven, and things are never as black and white as we think. Only at the end of time will evil stand out clearly, so that it can be disposed of, and only the Son of Man can judge.
