Jesus is happy to come with us, as truth is happy to be spoken, as life to be lived, as light to be lit, as love is to be loved, as joy to be given, as peace is to be spread.
St. Francis of Assisi

Prayers of the Faithful for Sunday, November 1

For Pope Francis, Bishop Richard, Fr. Raj, all priests, seminarians and religious as they do their work of bringing the faith to all people with whom they interact. We pray to the Lord.

For all politicians who keep strong their convictions of faith and doing what is right for all people. We pray to the Lord.

For this parish that we grow in holiness through faithful adherence to the Beatitudes. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for the grace to recognize that we are all called to be saints. We need to live every day with clean hands and pure hearts as we look forward in hope to sharing in the light of eternal life. We pray to the Lord.

For all the workers who are working to keep us safe in this pandemic. We pray to the Lord.

For everyone who is challenged by their physical, mental, emotional, or spiritual health. We include Cleon Widam, Ida McCourt, Camden Kingyen in our prayers. We pray to the Lord.

For all who have died. We pray they are welcomed into God's loving embrace. We pray to the Lord.

Masks are not essential during class, as social distancing is in place, but we encourage the use of a mask as you enter and leave the facility. Sanitized equipment is available, but you are encouraged to bring your own. These classes are sponsored by Central Region Sports and Recreation Corporation and the fee will be by donation (this is to enable everyone to attend, regardless of their financial situation). A special thanks to the North Rustico Lions Club for providing this space in service to their community. You can contact me to register at magallant58@gmail.com or call 902-626-9799.

The Word This Week - The Solemnity of All Saints

"A huge number, impossible to count" – that is the picture this Solemnity creates. In every age there have been men and women who have followed the Lord faithfully, and who now rejoice in the Liturgy of Heaven, as they stand before the throne of the Lamb. These are the "anonymous" saints, whose names we don't remember - but even though their names are not on our lips, their memory, inspiration, example and prayers are set before us today, so that we too can be encouraged in our own "journey of perfection". What does it take to be a saint? Surely the Gospel that is appointed for today (the Beati-tudes) shows us that it is in the small things that we triumph: gentleness, mercy, making peace, faithful mourning, purity of heart, poverty in spirit - these are not grand, public ways to sanctity. They are domestic, and homely, to be practised and perfected with those closest to us. We sometimes exalt the "named" saints to the degree that we can feel they are distant from us. Today's feast, as well as celebrating the memory of the many whose name we do not know, also prompts us to see holiness as within our grasp.
