When the Church celebrates the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, it is an attempt to summarize the whole mystery of our God into one day. This is not just a "theological feast" but a feast which should speak to us of this simple fact of faith: the Father loves us, has revealed that love in his Son, and has called into a relationship sustained by the Spirit. It is our joy that, as baptized members of the Church, we can somehow share in that divine life and love which is the Trinity becoming children of God. God has chosen us, and we are his own people, just as he chose the people of Israel long ago. The mystery of the Trinity is not meant to make this more difficult on the contrary it is to clarify and summarize all that our faith is about: that we are children with the Son, in the power of the Spirit of the one Father

@Pontifex: Let us invoke the Holy Spirit each day: He guides us along the path of discipleship in Christ. — Pope Francis

Edward Rd at 6:30 pm for the launch of a picture book entitled "This I Know" by local entertainer Michael Pendergast. Turning the song into a book has been a labour of five years and is beautifully illustrated by Joanne Snook-Hans of Newfoundland. This publication is not only a memorial to a loved one, but will also serve as an ongoing fundraiser for the PEI chapter of Hospice and the good works that they do; all proceeds will go to Hospice or related charities. The June 1st launch will include a small concert of appropriate songs with some stories to accompany them. There will be no admission
