Prayers of the Faithful

For Pope Francis, Fr. Brian MacDougall - Diocesan Administrator, Fr. Raj, all priests, religious and lay leaders as they help people learn and have hope in the unconditional love offered by Jesus. We pray to the Lord.

For all people in government that they continue to be empathetic and supportive to everyone. We pray to the Lord.

For all travellers to obey health and speed regulations put in place for everyone's safety. We pray to the Lord.

For us as we are concerned about family and loved ones. We need to have faith in Jesus and do as He says, "Do not fear, only believe". We pray to the Lord.

For all who are faced with challenging health conditions. We include Mike Gauthier, Jake Doucette. May they have faith, hope and courage knowing we are praying for them. We pray to the Lord.

For all who have died. May they be welcomed into God's loving embrace. We pray to the Lord.

The Word This Week

Today we are invited to marvel at one of the most dramatic and amazing of the Lord's miracles the raising back to life of the daughter of Jairus. The story is told with a level of emotional realism: the calm faith but dreadful fear of Jairus, the servants who bring the news of his daughter's death, the calm reassurance of Jesus and even the laughter of the servant who mock Jesus all these make this a story that can engage us and speak to us. And what it says is something profound: all the miracles of the Lord proclaim the Kingdom of God the world the way God wants it to be. God does not want us to die: death is not part of God's plan for us. This is reinforced by the unfamiliar first reading from the book of Wisdom, which opens our listening to God's Word today with the dramatic phrase: "Death was not God's doing." God created us to live forever, and the raising of Jairus' daughter to life is a vivid and outstanding proclamation of this truth.

Diocese Notices

Wanted: Historical materials pertaining to the diocese prior to 1975 and no longer needed by owners. Such items might include parish notes, obituaries, old letters, pictures of important parish or diocesan events, etc. Many such historical bits and pieces are often found in attics, trunks, boxes or basements and may soon be lost. Kindly contact Fr. Art O'Shea at the Diocesan Pastoral Centre at 902-368-8005 or drop off materials at 350 North River Road, Charlottetown on Tuesdays or Thursdays.

Shop www.sunrisemarian.com, a Canadian Catholic online store for books and media, gifts, devotionals and much more! At Sunrise Marian Distribution we feel that the intercession of the Blessed Mother was greatly influential in our decision to start a Catholic bookstore in 1996. We've adopted St. Louis de Montfort's quote, "The easiest way to Jesus is through Mary" as our motto and have placed our business under her protection and mantle. Our goal is to help people grow in their personal and spiritual lives while deepening their relationship with God, the Blessed Mother, and the Saints, through trustworthy books, faith formation, bible studies, gifts, music, and films.

Unit Notices

Helping Hands: The Knights of Columbus Council 9025, are undertaking a Program to assist seniors in the John Paul II Pastoral Unit with small odd jobs, for example, hanging curtains, blinds, pictures, putting up a shelf, or minor repairs. If you need help with these jobs or others, please call Genny Gallant 902-963-2989. She will refer your name and request to a member of the Knights of Columbus.

St. Anne's Notices

WIFI Available: St. Anne's Church is now wifi accessible. Please feel free to use our network while at our church.

Live Streaming Mass: We will be live streaming our Sunday Morning mass on Facebook. You can find it at https://www.facebook.com/stannespei/live_videos

We Have A Sharing Idea: Often there is extra rhubarb and other garden produce that is great to share. With this in mind the idea of a sharing table on the bell tower was born. Any Sunday morning if you have something to give just place it on the table and after mass help yourself to anything that is there you could use. This can be for all ages including children who might have a toy they no longer use. Books for all ages would be appropriate. Whatever is left will be taken away and given to second hand stores or other services such as the food bank. Your thoughts on this are welcome. If you have a picnic table you no longer use we would like to have it.

Rake Found: There was a rake found after the cemetery clean up last Saturday. If you are missing your rake it is next to the bench, please drop by and pick it up.

Stella Maris' Notices

Stella Maris Parish Centre: For anyone wishing to use Stella Maris Parish Centre for small gatherings. Information on availability and function restrictions, as per health regulations, are available by contacting Paul Blacquiere @ 902 963-2505 or e-mail paul.blacquiere@pei.sympatico.ca

The Annual Stella Maris Collection: Your contribution may be returned by placing it in the week-end collection, (especially over the next 3 week-ends, if possible) or mailing it in the self-addressed envelope. We ask that you be as generous as you can. Extra envelopes will be at the back of the church. Thank you!

Sunday Mass: Beginning Sunday July 4, there will be a second mass at Stella Maris at 10am. This is on a trial basis for 2 weeks depending on attendance and whether the costs warrant continuing with a second mass throughout the summer.

Mount Academy: Recently it was announced that the Mount Academy will be locating part of their program to the Parish Center. Unfortunately, due to the expected delays in completing their space in the new arena, they have decided that they will remain in their existing facility in Charlottetown for the next year and will not be using our Parish Center as previously announced.

St. Augustine's Notices

Property and Finance Committee: The property and finance committee has been preparing the annual parish appeal letter to be mailed to parishioners, friends and neighbours and it should be out within the next 2 weeks. In addition to the return mail and collection basket options to deposit your donation, there will also be a new online option at www.donatetostaugustines.ca with the option for 3 fund choices; 1) Support the preservation of our historic properties, 2) Cemetery Fund, 3) General Fund. Online donations will be receipted within 24 hours. It has been a while since our last appeal due to Covid-19 so keep your eye open for the letter. Please be as generous as you can and God bless you all.
